

THE WEATHER GETS WORSE

Second Blizzard Follows On the Heels of First, as Promised By Weather Man.

WORST WINTER IN YEARS.

Snow and Ice for Solid Week and Still There's More To Follow.

The weather this week has been decidedly the worst of the winter. Following a brief period of sunshine Wednesday, Thursday was ushered in with an all-day sleet with slush underfoot and a cold frozen snow at night to the depth of two inches. The thermometer stood 14 above. The sleet and snow, coming on top of the snow of last week, has made conditions very unpleasant for pedestrians and all kinds of traffic. All coal companies are busy hauling fuel.

Yesterday the second cold wave predicted came to hand and the day was raw and inclement in the extreme, if possible a worse day underfoot than the one before. The ground has now been covered with snow for eight days and wild animals and birds are having a hard time to keep alive. Live stock are enduring hard ships worse than for several years. Yesterday morning the mercury took another drop to 9 degrees above zero and the worst is yet to come.

PLANKS IN OLLIE

JAMES' PLATFORM.

For Tariff for Revenue Only, Inf. cement of Criminal Law Against Trusts.

Frankfort, Ky., January 12.—Senator Ollie James, in his speech to the Kentucky Legislature after his election, declared himself as follows:

"I shall vote for and advocate amendment to the constitution providing for the direct election of Senators by the people at the ballot box. I shall vote for an income tax on the fortunes of the rich.

"I shall vote to reform and reduce the tariff so that not one dollar shall be levied or collected except for the purpose of revenue.

"I shall vote to restore to our country competition in the fields of honest endeavor everywhere.

"I shall vote to drive from our country those powerful and oppressive agencies which seek to make mankind but a machine to turn out gold for their overflowing coffers.

"I believe in the enforcement of the criminal law against those who violate the anti-trust law.

"I shall stand always for our people, for the protection of every one of our citizens who claims allegiance and protection under the ample folds of our glorious flag, whether it be the humble Jew with his peddler's pack on his back in far away Russia, or the proudest American on any foreign soil."

Court of Appeals Says Even a Horse Trade Must Be Fair.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 12.—The court of appeals reversed the decision of the Graves circuit court in the case of the commonwealth vs. Dize Watson, and remanded to the court below to overrule the demurrer to the indictment and for a jury trial. Watson was indicted for false pretense in a horse trade. The court said a horse is property, which may be the subject of larceny within the meaning of the statute.

Raid on Chinamen.

New York, Jan. 12.—More than 200 Chinamen are under arrest here as a result of an invasion of Chinatown by an army of 125 policemen last night. The spectacular raid was the open move in a war against gambling, and it netted, besides a half-dozen arrests, the de-

BUY YOUR GROCERIES AT FORBES' IN 1912.

Why not make this one of your "resolutions" for the new year? You want to save all you can, of course; that's why we suggest that you come and try trading with us once. There are other reasons too—and they are almost as important as the saving proposition. For instance—we have the newest and freshest stock of groceries in town, no old shelf-worn, dusty, dirty stuff; we buy in the largest quantities and pay spot cash for same. And as to our prices, although we "don't raise much fuss" about it, WE ALWAYS MEET COMPETITION on anything in our line. Now if you don't believe we do this, call us up at any time and see. We could give you many other reasons why we are "just as nice" as the other fellows, but we'd rather show you. So come give us a trial anyway.

FARMERS ARE GOING

To The Big Corn Show And School at Evansville Jan. 22-27.

A large number of people from Hopkinsville and Christian county are going to take in the third annual Corn Show and Farmer's Short Course, to be held in Evansville, Jan. 22 to 27.

A great list of speakers and instructors has been secured; including L. P. Clore, many times winner of the national corn prize.

The corn show will be held in the Coliseum and the classes in domestic science, scoring corn, judging live stock, dairying, poultry raising and horticulture in various public buildings, such as the Orpheum Theatre, the Court House and Evans Hall.

An auction sale of pedigreed cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry will be held in connection with the show.

There will also be an automobile show in Evansville the same week.

The moving picture show, "The Romance of the Reaper" will be furnished free to ticket holders by the International Harvester Company.

One dollar secures a ticket that admits to everything.

It is generally acknowledged that nothing is doing more for farm development in this section than this annual corn show and farmers' short course.

Prizes are offered for the best corn, wheat, butter etc.

Farmers from all this section will flock to Evansville during the week of Jan. 22-27.

All progressive farmers and their wives, sons and daughters will take advantage of the opportunity offered them.

If the farmer can learn how to add ten to twenty-five per cent to his crops, his dollar and time for the Short Course will be well spent.

If he can learn how to secure the highest price beef cattle on the crepestrations, his dollar spent on the Short Course will be a good investment.

Make up your mind now that nothing will stop you from attending the Corn Show and school getting the
